I want my brand to have a very friendly tone. I want to make sure that the user can see me and my personality throughthe brand. My brand is suppose to represent me as a person !
I love to express my feelings, thought in a creative way, most likely through illustration ! Always using my everyday tools, pens, markers and pencils. I like to keep a minimalistic and strong details in my designs using colours that make me happy.